WOODBURY HOUSE.
1854
Main St. & 2nd Ave. Anoka, Minn.

Built by Caleb Woodbury who platted the town of Anoka in 1854, and was part owner of the first flour mill and first saw mill.

Later accupied by G. W. Church, first mayor of Anoka.

Now owned by G. E. Marander.

Interesting as typical of the period of frame architecture.

Authorities:

"History of Anoka County" by Goodrich.

"Fifty Years in the N. W. " Folsum.

Orally from Mrs. Chase, (mother of Ray Chase).

It is a frame building with siding, has a one-story and a two-story wing.
